

October 19th, 2007 ❧ 28 Tishrei, 5768

Cookie Sukkie!

The Sukkot Carnival in our Sukkah featured make-your-own Cookie Sukkie. Extra care is necessary to place the Schach roof without breaking the tasty walls.

Pin the Crown on the Torah!

On Simchat Torah we dance with the Torah to celebrate the completion of the reading of the Torah – The special gift G-d gave us. What do we do when we finish? Start again from the beginning... Learning never ends!

Story Time!

Rabbi Zalmy entertained us with a story of a Jew who joyously celebrating saving a Jewish family from prison. Torah celebration is happier when we help our fellow man. (No, he's not fixing his sock... he's demonstrating the dance...)

News & Events

❧ Kids Make Shabbat!

Back by popular demand! Students help cook the Shabbat meal on Thursday night, and then serve their delicious handiwork to their family and friends at Friday night Shabbat dinner.

Choose one of two weeks:
October 25/26 or Nov. 1/2

❧ New! SBTalmudTorah.com

To join our host of quality websites, our New Talmud Torah Website is launched today. The site was designed by our very own Ella and includes...

- Weekly Blog
- Picture Galleries
- Calendar
- Kids! Zone

❧ Our Themes:

Each class has a special Theme that we will be learning this school year: Morah Dena's class is exploring "My Jewish Self". Morah Rivka will be teaching all about Blessings and Shabbat. Rabbi Zalmy's class will discover the Jewish life cycle.